

Packing For Evacuation

At the start of WW2 millions of children were sent to “safe” rural areas across England.
These evacuees could not take much with them.

If you were an evacuee
what would you want to bring with you?

Draw the content of your suitcase below.

